POP-UP POETRY
Poetry for all!

Presented as part of the 2018 Sierra Poetry Festival pre-festival program of pop-up poetry events across Nevada County. See more at www.nevadacountyarts.org/2018-sierra-poetry-festival/
Presentation by Pascal Lee, Ph.D., a Planetary Scientist at the Mars Institute, SETI Institute, NASA Ames Research Center and Director of NASA Haughton-Mars Project. He is also the author of "Mission: Mars," a children's book published by Scholastic in 2013 (available at event).

Dr. Lee will discuss progress made around the world, from the Arctic to Antarctica, from basement labs to the International Space Station, to achieve the first human voyage to Mars.
