In this workshop, we'll be using short/fun poetic forms to say something about who we are, where we come from, and what we love. We will also be making our own poetry books made out of brown paper lunch bags and using recycled materials and our short poems to decorate them.

Don't miss out on this opportunity to unleash and nurture the writer and the brown-paper-bag artist in you!

This event is supported by the California Center for the Book and Poets & Writers, Inc. The California Center for the Book is supported in part by the U.S. Institute of Museum & Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Librarian. Support for Poets & Writers' Readings & Workshops program in California is provided by the California Arts Council, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

Additional support comes from the Friends of Poets & Writers.
